

Attention HBL Customers

Dear HBL Customer, the last few days, due to the prevailing security situation, air transport network has been disrupted in the country. Therefore, customers in some parts of the country might experience delays in receiving their documents via regular mail. HBL regrets this temporary inconvenience. We are confident that with the resumption of air transport network, customers will once again begin to receive their mail on time. We thank you for banking with HBL and look forward to building our relationship with you.
